

- As a part of this GBS10 system you received orange HEAT PROTECTOR
- This part provides extra protection for the parachute assembly during the system activation and limits the risk of parachute damage by pressure leaks around the piston perimeter.
- The position of this part is marked on the scheme below
- This part is not attached to the parachute canopy, during deployment is separated from the parachute, same as piston and container cap

